COMMITTEE OF NINE INSPECTS CANYON WATER

Directors and Guests
Served Luncheon
at Crystal Lake

In order to keep in touch with the water problems in San Gabriel canyon incident to conservation, and to create a community-wide understanding of the work duties of the Committee of Nine, the board of directors on Tuesday made its annual inspection tour to the headwaters of the San Gabriel.

The directors were accompanied by a party of forty invited guests, including civic leaders and state and county officials interested in water development and conservation, and in the opening of these mountain playgrounds to the general public in a manner that will not be detrimental to the interests of the water users in the valleys below.

At Crystal lake county park, twenty-five miles from the mouth of the canyon and now reached by a two-way oiled road, the party was met by James K. Reid, supervisor of the Los Angeles county camps and playgrounds department, and Roy Tuttle, resident superintendent of the Crystal lake recreation camp.

Here lunch, served alfresco, of steaks grilled over an open fire, accompanied by the side dishes which delight the palates of men who live in the "open places," awaited the party. During the service of the meal vocal and instrumental music was furnished by the employees of the camp who during the season furnish a large part of the camp's recreational programs in addition to their other duties.

Following lunch, C. A. Griffith of Azusa, president of the board of directors of the Committee of Nine, in a concise address of ten minutes told why the committee was brought into being following the signing of the compromise agreement by the water users of the San Gabriel in 1889. The work of the committee, Mr. Griffith said, is to protect the existing water rights in the canyon and to provide for the distribution of the water among the users in the valley in accordance with the provisions of the compromise agreement. On behalf of the committee, he expressed to the guests present an appreciation for the support that the committee had received from the water users in the valley in its efforts to sustain and enforce the terms of the agreement.

James K. Reid, county superintendent of parks, told of the rapid development during the past year of the Crystal lake camp area as a county-wide mountain playground. During the past year, Mr. Reid stated, over 65,000 visitors had registered at the camp, the peak of the summer season 18,000 people visited the camp in one week, and the greatest registration for any one day during the past year was 3324.

Pastor Gives Series of Travel Talks on Mission Fields

The series of Sunday evening illustrated travel talks by Rev. Leland S. Brubaker, pastor of the Brethren church, who has recently returned from a ten-months' world tour, are attracting wide attention, filling the church with overflowing audiences.

Last Sunday evening the address was devoted to the activities of the church in the mission fields of China, illustrated with four reels of motion pictures, showing hospitals, schools and the social work of missionaries. Dr. Robert P. Miller assisted the speaker by operating the motion picture projector.

On this coming Sunday evening the speaker will deal with the Brethren missions in India, and on a Sunday evening early in November he will recount his experiences in Africa, showing pictures of the native settlements taken hundreds of miles in the interior of this vast empire.

MOVE TO ALAMEDA

Mrs. William Bainbridge and son, Robert, of East Badilla street left last week for Alameda to make their home, where the latter will attend the Boeing air school, which is held in conjunction with the United airport. He will major in radio engineering. Norbert Bainbridge, elder son of Mrs. Bainbridge, is in Nebraska, where he is connected with the air service.

A travelogue, illustrated with colored motion pictures of his recent trip to New York, thru the Panama canal, returning by way of New Orleans, was the program presented to the members of the Rotary club at their weekly luncheon yesterday by Rotarian Elbert B. Griffith.

The pictures, taken by Mr. Griffith, revealed a discrimination in the subjects selected and an excellency of production that places him in the front ranks of the amateur photographers of the upper San Gabriel valley, which boasts one of the largest amateur clubs in Los Angeles county.

Schools Borrow Money to Operate Until Tax Time

Assurance that the Covina city elementary school district would have sufficient funds to enable it to function until next tax receipts come in in December was given Monday, following an authorization to borrow $10,000 a temporary loan from the unapportioned school funds of the county.

Loans of $1000 for the West Covina elementary school and $20,000 for the Covina union high school district also were approved by the supervisors, upon recommendation of the county superintendent.

Temporary loans may be made to school districts under the school code, Clifton explained, and each year school districts sometimes find themselves without funds to carry over until the next tax receipts come in, beginning November 1.

"This year the need is more acute," Clifton stated, "as the districts were not allowed to provide for reserves in 1934-35, and their funds are almost exhausted in many districts. Some school districts already have started to register warrants, and many others must do so soon."

Temporary loans aggregating $590,000 were approved by the supervisors, upon Clifton's recommendation, from three funds. The larger amount, $540,000, is to come from the unapportioned county elementary school fund, $30,000 from the unapportioned high school fund, and $20,000 from the school supply revolving fund. In no case does the amount of the loan exceed 50 percent of the income of the current year to the fund. Clifton said. The borrowed money is to be used for payment of salaries of the teachers, and for maintenance expense.

In addition to the local district, the following loans were approved for adjacent districts: El Monte high school, $25,000; Azusa city, $1000; Glendora, $5000.

"Homecoming" Day to Be Held by Church

Members of the Methodist church and their friends are preparing for a "homecoming" day on Sunday next. This occasion will be in the nature of an all-day program, each service being featured by speakers and sacred musical numbers.

The presence in the pulpit at the morning service of Bishop James C. Baker, D.D., L.L.D., of the San Francisco area, assures an overflowing congregation. The musical features at this service will include anthems by the vested choir, vocal and organ numbers.

Following a community dinner served in the social parlors of the church, a reminiscence service will be held in the church auditorium at 2:30, with the Hon. Frank Swain, judge of the superior court of Los Angeles county, as the speaker.

Daniels Transferred to Pomona Field

Honoring Ward Daniels, employee of the Southern Counties Gas company, who has been transferred to Pomona, and Mrs. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Whit Helms of Cypress avenue on Wednesday evening entertained at the home of the Daniels a dinner. Mr. Daniels has been employed for thirteen years from the local office. Present for the evening were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Coops, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hoopell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Short, Mrs. Alma Smith, Miss Alice Prager, Stanley Smith, Marion Adsit, and George Dollar.

Following the dinner the party adjourned to the Daniels home on Orange street for an informal evening.

HUNTERS BAG DEER

Howard Varcoe and Dick Jackson, in company with out-of-town friends, returned to their homes on Sunday from a successful deer hunting trip to Summit Meadows. Both men were lucky in bagging a deer apiece.

BEN F. THORPE WILL DIRECT CHEST DRIVE

Teams Being Selected to Participate in Annual Drive

H. M. Brubaker, president of the board of directors of the Covina community chest, has announced this week the appointment of Ben F. Thorpe, orchardist and civic worker, as director for the forthcoming annual drive for funds to maintain the various relief and character-building organizations sustained by the local chest.

President Brubaker, following the acceptance of Mr. Thorpe, stated that members of the board felt that they were to be congratulated in being able to secure the services of Mr. Thorpe, whose experiences in similar undertakings have fitted him for this task. Mr. Brubaker further stated that it would be the policy of the board to reduce the budget this year to the minimum, as the directors realized that many of the subscribers to the chest funds were making personal sacrifices to sustain their obligations.

Mr. Thorpe is already busy selecting the personnel of the teams which will participate in the drive, which will start some time during the third week in October, Tuesday, October 15, being the tentative date now set.

The community chest was organized five years ago, and the success which has met its efforts in the past has demonstrated that thru the chest methods the greatest economy can be achieved in securing the necessary funds required for local relief and other agencies.

Directors of the chest include Dr. Charles D. Samuels, Rev. Leland S. Brubaker, Sam W. Stead, Mrs. William Warren, George W. Maxfield, Roy C. Hanna, Ben Hepner, R. W. Davis, Henry Damerel, R. W. Burns, Mrs. Henry Hepner, Harry Gordon, F. H. McElfresh, and William Leech.

Other officers re-elected to serve again this year are J. D. Coles, treasurer, and William A. Viney, secretary.

Activities in Real Estate Shown by Sales Reports

Rumors that there is an increased activity in real estate is being substantiated by reports of the sale of two groves—that of five acres of Valencia belonging to H. E. Milliken and W. A. Viney on South Citrus avenue to Dr. C. D. Samuels, and that of the east five acres of a navel grove belonging to the Alice Brubaker estate and situated on Rowland and Citrus avenues, to Fred Ashton.

Further signs of activity in building and real estate are the numbers of new homes in process of construction. In Adams park several new homes are on their way to completion, one being built for Deputy Sheriff Ivan Pyle and a duplex and single house of stucco on Adams Park Drive being built for Roy Cushman.

Conditions, however, were not such that will be situated in Covina Highlands is that being built by B. D. Foix on Barranca street. Mr. and Mrs. Foix have been residing on Lark Ellen and Cameron streets.

Spraying Information to Be Available

Carrying out instructions from the county horticultural commissioner's office, R. N. Hutchison, inspector for the Covina district, announced this week that in order to avoid confusion, spraying information may hereafter be obtained from the office of the chamber of commerce in the city hall.

During the recent hot spell it was found that there were times when spraying should not be done and other times when it could be done with safety, but the only information available was that broadcasted by Floyd Young, government weather forecaster, at 12:30 each day. Conditions, however, were often changed and growers were not sure whether to go ahead, and with Inspector Hutchison busy in the field it was often difficult to locate him. For this reason the county department is now sending information to the office of the chamber of commerce each day, where it will be available to the ranchers of this district.

Steps Taken Toward Entering Float in Rose Parade

Steps are being taken this week to have Covina represented with a float in the forthcoming Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena, New Year's day.

This action is due to the activities of a small group of public-spirited men, who have voluntarily organized to coordinate the efforts of the Lions club, Rotary club, city officials and chamber of commerce in such a movement. The plan is meeting with the support of business men, professional men and ranchers of the valley. The committee also hopes to have a community exhibit in the Los Angeles county fair next year.

Among the active members of the committee are W. E. McNatt, James Hodges, Jr., W. L. Ferguson, Verne Ross, Frank Kendall, and William Hoogendyk.

New Buick Cars on Display Here Tomorrow

With the most striking changes ever presented by Buick, the new models for 1936 will be introduced tomorrow in the showroom of Irven G. Reynolds. The result of $15,000,000 factory expenditure and two years' preparation in restyling and engineering advancements, the new Buick emphasizes economy as well as a new youthful mode and new peaks of performance and comfort. Reduced in price, operation and maintenance costs have also been materially lowered, according to Mr. Reynolds, who quotes from long tabulations of tests covering hundreds of thousands of miles.

The four series, with fourteen models, range in wheelbase lengths from 118 to 138 inches. Each sedan has a trunk with large carrying space built in the Fisher turret-top steel bodies and all of the cars are equipped with the latest development in hydraulic brakes.

Ben Thorpe Presides at Meeting of Philatelic Clubs

Ben F. Thorpe, president of the Pomona Valley Philatelic club, presided Saturday at a meeting held in Pomona, when the Pomona valley club was host to the Federation of Philatelic clubs of southern California. The program included an inspection of the splendid exhibit of stamps held at the Los Angeles county fair, followed by a six-thirty dinner in the community clubhouse, at which there were almost two hundred present.

The Pomona valley club numbers many stamp collectors from Covina and was organized in 1929, with a meeting at the homes of members once a month. Harry B. Westgate of Pomona is vice-president and Clarence White of Pomona, secretary-treasurer.

BENEFIT DESSERT BRIDGE

On Friday afternoon, October 11, at 1:30 p. m., the Covina Woman's club will give a benefit dessert bridge and fashion show in the garden of the home of Mrs. Irven G. Reynolds at Adams park. Tickets are now available and may be secured from club members.

Citrus Fruit Exchange Manager Gives Resume of Market Conditions

For the two-week period ending September 14, the i.o.b. prices on valencias shipped from southern California were the highest that have been realized, being 15 cents and 14 cents, respectively, above the previous high for any given week this season, is a statement made by Stanley Trueblood, manager of the Covina Fruit Exchange.

The market was lower last week, but has shown a tendency to level off the last few days, and it is unlikely that this weaker tendency will continue for more than a week if California shippers will pay the strictest of attention to their weekly prorated allotment and grade of fruit moving forward. Too heavy shipments of off brands, due to a strong tendency to reduce consumer confidence in California oranges, with a consequent price reaction.

California valencias are meeting severe competition from eastern local varieties of fruits and produce; peaches, pears, plums, cantaloupes, figs, apples, and other produce from some districts being reported as the heaviest on record. It is anticipated that the peak of this competition was reached last week, but will remain a considerable factor until killing frosts occur. Mr. Trueblood stated. Grapefruit shipments from Florida are now under way, but for another (Continued on last page)

DEATH COMES TO PIONEER OF COVINA AREA

Mrs. Minerva Hepner
Drops in Garden
of Home

Beneath the shadow of a large guava bush, at the rear of her home at 328 West Puente street, the body of Mrs. Mary Minerva Hepner, widow of the late William Henry Hepner, was discovered by her daughter of Santa Ana shortly after 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The physician who viewed the remains stated that death, due to heart failure, had probably occurred two hours before the body was found.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. McVey drove to Covina from her home in Santa Ana to visit her mother, with the intention of taking home several pairs of guavas which were ripening on the bushes in the rear of the family home. Arriving, she found no evidence of her mother in the house, and thinking she was visiting the neighbors, took a path and started for the garden to pick the fruit.

There she discovered the body of her mother lying on the ground, apparently having been stricken while in the act of picking guavas from the bushes.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the Church of the Brethren, West Puente street, which was filled to overflowing with relatives, friends and neighbors of the deceased, evidencing the esteem and respect in which her mother was held in the community, of which she had been a resident for over forty-eight years. The rostrum of the church was massed with floral tributes, a beautiful background for the casket which stood in front of the chancel rail.

The Rev. Leland S. Brubaker, pastor of the church, paid a touching tribute to the life of this woman, who, the speaker said, in her own retiring way, labored continuously to make this world a better place in which to live.

The interment service was at Oakdale cemetery under the direction of Christiansen & Moore, the remains being laid beside those of her late husband. The pallbearers were J. P. Overholzer, Leroy Eickenberry, Charles Felzer, Clyde Johnson, S. W. Funk, and Willard Runyan.

The deceased was born in Folk county, North Carolina, near Saluda, March 14, 1885. At the age of sixteen years she joined the Brethren church, of which she was a faithful member until her death. January 23, 1885, she married William Henry Hepner, moving with her husband to Fort Lupton, Colorado, where they lived three years. In the fall of 1887 the family moved to California, establishing their present home.

Orange Picker Found Dead in Wash

Frank "Cherokee" Young, an orange picker who has made his home in Covina intermittently for the past twenty-five years, was found dead Monday morning in the San Dimas wash bed, near the Southern Pacific tracks, west of Lark Ellen street. The body was moved to the White funeral home, Azusa, awaiting word from relatives. The deceased was born in San Pedro and it is believed that he has a father living in Balboa. It is also stated that he has a sister living in one of the beach towns, but all efforts have as yet failed to locate her.

Council Board Holds Luncheon Meeting

At a luncheon meeting of the union council board of the Parent-Teacher association held on Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Herbert Casey, on Orange avenue, the resignation of Mrs. E. Berg as secretary was accepted and Mrs. Ralph Pollard selected to fill the position. Vice-President V. R. Ross of the high school, chairman of citizenship and international relations, was the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Neil Algeo and Mrs. Francis Ireland assisted the hostess.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. Emily Speer, venerable mother of Mrs. C. C. Collins of West Orange street, is seriously ill at her daughter's home. Small hopes are entertained for her recovery. R. C. Speer of Upland and A. R. Speer of Imperial valley, sons of the invalid, are spending some time at the Collins home.

Chamber Secretary to Assist Ranchers

At the luncheon meeting of the chamber of commerce held Tuesday noon at Longworths' cafe it was learned that Hazel Towner, secretary of the chamber, is to act as a clearing house for the ranchers and sprayers of the district and that the office of Floyd Young will notify Miss Towner of intense heat and give warnings to commercial sprayers when the thermometer will reach a degree that it is unsafe to spray orange trees. Miss Towner will be on hand during office hours to give this information to ranchers or sprayers.

World-Wide Trip Described for Men's Club

An interesting address, filled with human interest, by Rev. Leland S. Brubaker, marked the fall opening dinner meeting of the Covina Men's club, held last Friday evening in the Woman's clubhouse. It was a descriptive narrative of the high spots of his recent world-wide trip of 44,000 miles by boat, train, auto, oxcart, donkey, horseback and on foot, as he expressed it in his opening remarks.

Rev. Brubaker, who is pastor of the local Brethren church and a member of the denominational mission board, tells a story of his ten-months' trip that at once grips the attention of his hearers and leaves with them a mental picture of the conditions prevailing in the far-away mission fields of the country thru which he traveled. The speaker was introduced by Rev. Harry G. Earle, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

During the evening Ralph Nye, community song leader, led the membership in a number of vocal favorites, accompanied by Mrs. Fay Ferguson on the piano. Outstanding numbers on the musical portion of the evening's program were three songs rendered by Patrolman Tom Elliott, known thruout Los Angeles county as the "Singing Cop," a good-natured giant weighing 257 pounds in his birthday suit.

This initial meeting of the present year was presided over by the club's president, Dean Fesler. The dinner was served by members of the Woman's club.

Reynolds Family Home From Trip to Mid-West

Mr. and Mrs. Irven G. Reynolds returned to their home Wednesday morning from a six-weeks' visit in the east. They were accompanied home from Kansas City by Miss Victoria Reynolds, who was returning to her home here after spending three years in England and the continent. Miss Reynolds has visited in all the famous resorts and spent many months in London. She sailed from England on September 5 and stopped enroute in Kansas City to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and their daughters, Misses Jane and Harriett.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds had an enjoyable trip by the southern route thru Salt Lake City and northern Wisconsin. Mrs. Reynolds spent a week in her former home at La Crosse, while Mr. Reynolds made a short trip to Detroit and Chicago, joining Mrs. Reynolds in La Crosse, and driving together to Kansas City, where they joined Miss Reynolds at the Taylor home.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION ALL SET TO SURPASS LAST YEAR'S FESTIVAL

Gathering of Old Residents, Floats, Barbecue, Riding Contest, and Evening Dance to Be Features of Annual Event

Covina's fifty-first birthday party Saturday, October 12, will surpass the one held last year, in the opinion of T. P. Logan, president of the chamber of commerce and general chairman in charge of the celebration, expressed in an interview following the meeting of the executive committee Tuesday evening.

"My opinion that this year's birthday party will be better than that of last year is based on the reports of chairmen of various committees and the active work they are doing to make their part of the day better than before, and the fact that these committees are made practically the same as those who handled the event last fall, makes success even more assured," Mr. Logan said.

"The main features of the day will be, of course, the parade and the barbecue, and Dr. C. D. Samuels, head of the parade committee, reports that he has been assured a number of floats by business firms and individuals who did not take part last year. The barbecue committee, under the direction of Frank Kendall, Henry Brandon and John Koch, assisted by the members of the fire department and others, will have preparations made so that the crowd can be served quickly and there will be ample provisions provided so that everyone will be served."

That the old settlers will have the place of honor is assured by the appointment of C. W. Potter as chairman of the invitation committee, and Mr. Potter has already sent several hundred invitations to the older residents of Covina and vicinity and to former residents in other parts of California. He has also arranged for a supply of the invitation cards to be left at the office of the chamber of commerce at the city hall, where those having friends or relatives they would like to invite may secure cards ready to mail. Mrs. Marian Reed and her committee in charge of the entertainment for the honor guests is preparing special entertainment for them following the barbecue dinner at the city park.

One of the attractive features of the day will be the riding contest at the park in the afternoon, with many of the expert horsemen of the valley taking part. Frank DeLay being in charge of this part of the program. The horse division of the parade last fall was one of the surprises of the day and Mr. DeLay expects that there will be a larger showing of horses this year.

Already a number of floats for the parade, which will form on Dexter street just east of Citrus avenue and will start promptly at 11 o'clock, are now in preparation, according to Dr. Samuels, parade chairman, and he has assurances from many of the business houses and civic organizations that they will have floats for the day. Several of the pack-in-houses have signified their intention of taking part, and a number of surprises are in store for the spectators when the parade travels north on Citrus avenue. F. H. McElfresh, chairman of the merchants division of the chamber, has issued a request that the members of his division enter floats in keeping with the day, and reports a ready response to his appeal.

Tickets for the barbecue are now in the hands of all merchants and business houses of the city, where they can be secured for 35 cents for adults and 20 cents for children. As there has been no rain to make a profit from the celebration, the tickets have been put at this low price in order that all may enjoy the barbecue and the events of the day at as little cost as possible.

The Baldwin Park Boosters band, which has taken several prizes for its playing during the summer, has been engaged to furnish music during the parade and also will give a concert in the park following the dinner.

Monday evening, October 7, the American Legion will give a booster program at the Legion hall, the purpose being to stimulate interest in the birthday party. Following an entertainment that promises to be especially interesting, there will be a lunch served and an opportunity for discussion of the celebration plans. James Hodges, chairman of the sports committee for the birthday party, announced Thursday that arrangements have been made whereby the football game between Covina and Whittier high schools will be played at the high school field Saturday afternoon instead of on Friday, thereby adding another attractive feature to the day's sports.

Mrs. S. M. Goodwin of East Center street, who has been confined for the past month to her home with illness, is slowly recovering and able to be up and around the house.

Tribute Paid to Career of Late Daniel Reichard

Last rites for Daniel Reichard, well-known valley pioneer, whose death occurred on Wednesday, September 18, following a brief illness, were held on the following Friday morning, September 20, in the mortuary of the Baldwin Park funeral home, which was filled with old and intimate friends and neighbors of the deceased.

The casket, covered with a blanket of roses, sweet peas and maidenhair fern, was surrounded by many beautiful floral pieces, mute evidences of esteem and respect for the deceased.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Bertrand Hause, rector of Holy Trinity church, who spoke in feeling terms of the sterling and useful life of nearly ninety years, now ended. In closing he read the following poem:

DANIEL REICHARD
By ADA REICHARD

Youth and vision—
He had them both.
Tall and straight—
He stood at the prow—
Joyous—as the boat cut the water,
Christened by the spray,
Ready for the west.

His sun-kissed curls—
His sparkling blue eyes—
Gave to his radiant face
A glow from heaven's realms.
So down the years he worked
Among the pioneers—
Tilling the soil,
Basking, dancing, laughing,
With dark-faced troubadours
Who gave romance and glamor to these shores.

Land, his heritage,
He found at last,
Between the mountains and the sea;
Where he could labor
Or sit beneath a tree to read.

Grain, the soil's true gold;
Grapes, the gods' ambrosia,
He harvested;
Valencias he planted.
The years sped on,
Made happy by a home—
Generous to those in need;
One of the Nine who made the valley bloom.

Came the night—
A quiver and Spanish song
As in the old San Gabriel days,
Had come again.
Smiling he lay him down,
And passed into a dream.
Awakening he sails beyond,
The dreams of yesterday
Aglow. His spirit courses on!

Tire Shop Equips Service Car

As an added service to the patrons of his tire shop, George Ross has recently installed a completely equipped tire service car to answer road calls in Covina and vicinity, the car having every facility for making tire repairs so that the motorist will not be delayed by a trip to the shop. The truck is painted white and makes an attractive as well as an efficient addition to the shop equipment.

TEMPERANCE LEGION TO MEET

The Loyal Temperance Legion, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will meet Monday afternoon, September 30, at the Baptist church. Mrs. R. M. Netzel will have charge of the meeting, which will consist of a story hour and a program of interest for the youngsters. Plans will be discussed at this time for the annual autumn picnic, which will be held in the near future.

TRIPLETS CHRISTENED

The triplet children of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmidt of Los Angeles received their christening Sunday morning at the Methodist church in Azusa. Their names are Carol Ann, Mervin Cary, and Jean Russell. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt are former Covina residents, the former being a brother of A. L. Schmidt, a plumber with offices on North Citrus avenue.

OUR WORRIES

Most of our troubles come from within. It's in our own minds that worries begin. We fuss and stew and imagine the worst. And so, of course, our troubles come first.

Most of our troubles can be easily met. But instead, we brood and continually fret. They ruin our day before we start out. Worries that we could be doing without.

In life there are problems we all must face. But worry won't help us in any such case. To solve them we need all our power to think. And worry just brings us close to the brink.

The best cure for worry is a smile and a song. For worry can't stand a smile very long. You will find your troubles are really quite few. If you don't worry them, they will not worry you.

— W. E. W.

We have discovered why it is that Mac McIntosh of the telephone company always slips thru the alley when he goes to the post-office. It's because he is still wearing his straw hat, and the season closed on them Friday, September 13.

UNCLE BILLY MARRIED!

Friday evening, September 13, at the We Kirk of the Showers, Bedelia Bison and Uncle Billy were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Doolittle Bison, father of the bride, the soft tones of a hand organ playing "She May Have Seen Better Days" throughout the ceremony. The bride wore a pink gown, and the groom wore a red suit. The ceremony was a very simple one, and the couple were married at 8 o'clock. The bride is a graduate of Bismarck college, where she majored in domestic science, and she expects to use her knowledge of diet in reforming the form of her new husband. Uncle Billy is a graduate of the college of hard knocks—and is still knocking.

(P. S.—We have heard so much about being married, or going to be, that we have almost commenced to think about it as a reality, so we had one of the Argus society reporters write her idea of an obituary, or whatever it is they call a marriage notice, one that she thought would be fitting for us. Since reading it in print we have decided that we will stay single and enjoy life.) (Second P. S.—This is to certify that we are not going to get married, even if we now have a home of our own, that is, as far as we know. Signed, Uncle Billy.)

(Third P. S.—When it got so bad that Mary Sunshine Funk and Ethel Huff hollered congratulations at us Sunday, we decided that we had better do something about it.) Operator's note—As the KNX news reporter says: Well, well, well! It was worth going without any deer meat to hear the alibies put up by some of Covina's mighty hunters, those advanced by "Tink" Tinker, Big Bill Peterson and Bill Kinsey being especially good, that every time they got near a deer an airplane would scare it away. But we haven't given up hopes. Monty Montague is still to be heard from.

This is one for the book. Sunday morning we were walking along San Bernardino road when Harry Farason overtook us. "Jump in," he said. "I'll take you to Sunday school. Which one do you attend?" "Baptist," we told him. He drove to the Methodist church, where he left his daughter, and then he turned to us and asked, "Now, where is the Baptist church?" And the onery cuss has lived in Covina for seven years!

Last week the press of the state carried the story of a state official who had made the statement

HE LIKES US

Harold Judy of the General Petroleum service station at the corner of Citrus avenue and San Bernardino road reports a conversation with H. M. Curll of Philadelphia, who has spent several weeks in and around Covina. Asked how he liked Covina, Mr. Curll said, "I like your town so well that I am negotiating for a grove and if the deal goes thru I will make this city my future home. I have spent several months in California and have found that Covina suits me better than any place I have seen, not only for its natural beauty but for the friendliness and courtesy of its people."

New Classes for Night High School Organized

For several years a class in citizenship, having as a primary objective definite instruction for aliens who are in preparation for the examination given before they secure naturalization papers as American citizens, has been operated by Covina evening high school. During these years many citizens of the valley have secured this instruction and have successfully passed the tests.

The work is being continued in the present session of the evening high school. A class is organized to meet for the first session on Tuesday, October 1, at 7 p. m. at the high school building. Thereafter meetings will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week until the course is completed—about February 1.

This instruction deals definitely with United States history and stresses in particular the constitution. Such a study is pertinent at the present time not only to aliens but to citizens in general.

LANDSCAPE SKETCHING

Responding to local demands, two classes in landscape painting and sketching are being organized. One is meeting in Baldwin Park at 10 a. m. Friday, September 27, at the Central Intermediate school, and the other at the high school on Tuesday at 1 p. m. The former is under the instruction of Miss Ruth Mahoney, and the latter that of Harve E. Shade.

Miss Mahoney for two years has instructed a night class in art at Baldwin Park. She has an enthusiastic following and her pupils have done creditable work. Mr. Shade has been trained at the Chouinard Art school in Los Angeles and at the Grand Central Art school in New York. His work ranks high in the art world.

These two classes will do much outdoor sketching. Oil, water color, pastel and charcoal will be the mediums particularly emphasized. Beginners as well as advanced students will be accommodated.

KNITTING

A popular and useful accomplishment that is being reviewed is the art of knitting. Several requests for definite instruction in this art have been received by the administration of the adult education movement. Enrollment is being taken and when sufficient names are on file a class will be organized.

INCREASING INTEREST

General interest, as expressed in terms of enrollment, is increasing in the various classes of the adult education department of the high school district. Requests for the organization of new classes are a daily occurrence.

Famous Circus Horse Greeted by Pals

When the circus arrived home in Baldwin Park yesterday to reside in winter quarters, after its 18,000 miles of travel and six months' wear and tear on tinsel and finery, there was an important reception committee of one, awaiting, to greet his old comrades.

The special greeter was "Full Dress," 25-year-old shiny chestnut horse which has been a part of the A. G. Barnes institution for many years. This year, though, he was pensioned to rest with good food and the run of the winter headquarters during the season.

Full Dress used to carry A. G. Barnes himself, in parades and in the circus program. And later, he was a part of the most important part of an act in which he was ridden by a beautiful dandy wearing a ballet costume and carrying dozens of white doves on her outstretched arms.

When Full Dress was pensioned, the doves stayed at home, too—and each day when he comes down from the stables to visit the others who are stay-at-homes, the dozens of white pigeons flutter down to do their part in the "act."

that one of the employees of his office would be discharged if she accepted jury service. Such an official should be immediately discharged when he shows such a lack of interest in the welfare of the state that is feeding him.

A teacher at the grammar school asked one of her tots the question, "Where are elephants found?" and was surprised at the truth of the answer she received. "I didn't know they were lost, but my daddy says that the best way to find anything that is lost is to advertise it in the Argus classified column."

We've been insulted again. Monday we went into the Book shop and asked Clyde Custer where his "I Forgot Your Birthday" cards were. "What's the matter with you?" Clyde came back at us. "Every month I have to show you where those 'I Forgot' cards are."

John Ganzenhuber Shot in Arm

John Ganzenhuber, Jr., a patron of a cafe on Jefferson street in Los Angeles, was the innocent victim of a shooting fray, which took place September 12, when an inebriated person shot and seriously injured Golda Draper, a waitress. The bullet which injured Miss Draper also struck Ganzenhuber in the arm.

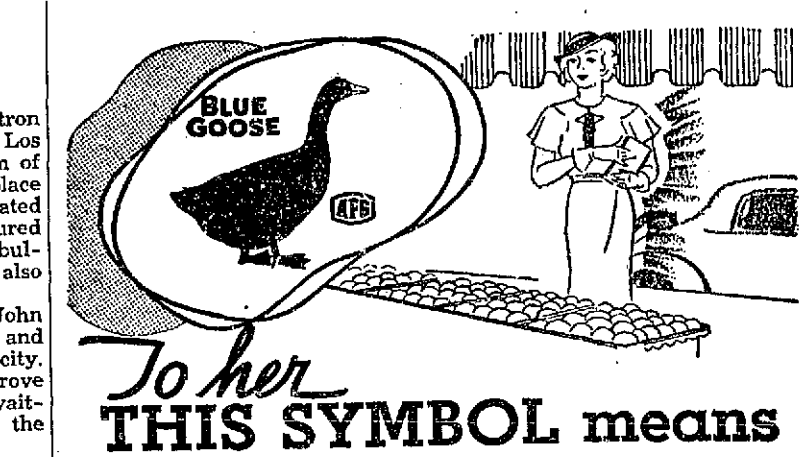

The young man is a son of John Ganzenhuber of Baldwin Park, and formerly resided in the latter city. Ganzenhuber's injury did not prove serious, but the injury to the waitress has kept her confined to the Good Samaritan hospital.

Why be tied down to Old Fashioned Cooking?

Grandma's kitchen was like a furnace—only a small part of the heat was used for cooking...the most went out the window...but no more! For real cooking comfort and economy the modern woman now cooks on an electric range—just read this letter from Mrs. Hunsley

"We want to let you know how delighted we are with our new all-electric kitchen and equipment."

"We have an electric range, refrigerator, water heater, radio and other electrical appliances. We have found it to be very economical and clean, also the food tastes better."

"We have the hot water in a second bathroom in an apartment that we rent. Our bill for June was $7.66, for July $7.87. This includes everything, even the second bathroom. There are three in our family and one in the second apartment."

Lions Hear Talk on Experiences of World Traveler

In the first of three informal talks to be given before his fellow-members of the Lions Club, Rev. Leland S. Brubaker at the Monday meeting gave an account of his visit to Africa during the world tour from which he returned a few weeks ago, also showing a number of souvenirs, among them being the skin of a man-killing boa constrictor and several antiques, knives and novelties made by the natives.

Showing something of how the people live in the district visited by the Brubaker party, he told of one trip of 105 miles into the interior, where all of the luggage and supplies had to be carried in by natives, who carried 250 pounds on their heads, covering an average of 35 miles a day, and were paid at the rate of 65 cents per 100 miles. Such work, he said, is so hard on the men that these burden-bearers do not live long and yet they keep on at it as long as they can keep going.

Mr. Brubaker told of another instance where it was necessary to cross a stream and fifty of the natives picked up the trailer containing all the baggage of the party of seven and carried it across the river on their heads.

Describing the domestic life of the people, Mr. Brubaker said that each man is allowed to till as much land as he cares to, although none of the land was sold to him, and as soon as he ceased to till it the plot passed back to the tribe, to be taken by anyone who wanted to work it. All of the work is done by the women and each man is allowed to have as many wives as he wants in order to increase the population, which has been greatly reduced by the tribal warfare taking off so many of the men. All of the huts are built in a community center, which in most cases is surrounded by wild grass growing fifteen feet or more in height. Ever so often the natives set fire to this grass in order to protect their settlement from the wild beasts, a never-ending menace to the lives of the people.

Mr. Brubaker's word-picture of his travels made one of the most interesting programs the Lions have enjoyed, and his forthcoming talks will be looked forward to with increased interest.

Visual Education Facilities Installed at Grammar School

Visual education, one of the newer developments of child training, has been installed in a small way in the grammar school and, according to Principal Ralph S. Chambers, will be enlarged upon as finances permit. A 16-millimeter machine has been purchased, and it is possible to show pictures at small assemblies and class rooms only. Lack of material is also a handicap and many of the films are unsuitable for this work. However, the film library in the county educational board is increasing and it is possible to secure interesting pictures of travel and industry.

As a result of citizenship contests and experiments that are being carried on in the east, it is hoped that these films can soon be secured for citizenship training.

As a result of the newer lines of child training, class rooms are taking on a much more liveable appearance. Light, sunshiny colors and bits of pottery and plants, making a harmonious and happy environment, tend to make study more enjoyable, say learned child psychologists, and the drab tans and battleship grays are being supplanted by light and happy colors as fast as finances permit, according to Mr. Chambers. The cafeteria building, which last year was strengthened to meet the demands of earthquake restrictions, received a complete coat of paint and when visited early one morning met the eye in a becoming ensemble of cream walls, deeper cream table-tops that shone in their cleanliness, brick red table legs that blended nicely with the chairs and drapes at the long windows. From the kitchen, which was presided over by Mrs. Lettie Stombaugh and Mrs. E. G. Hixon, there emanated odors of the forthcoming healthy and wholesome luncheon.

Lucerne Ice Cream Wins Gold Medal at County Fair

Lucerne ice cream, sold thru the Pay'n Takit stores, was awarded the gold medal for top honors at the Los Angeles county fair at Pomona, according to C. L. Smith, in charge of Lucerne sales. The Lucerne brand was selected as the best by a committee of judges who sampled scores of brands, after samples had been picked up from dairies and stores by representatives of the state department of agriculture. Lucerne milk also won two gold medals and two silver medals in milk competition.

"This is the first time Lucerne ice cream has won top place in competition at the Los Angeles county fair and we are proud of our success," Mr. Smith said. "Since its introduction at a low price, Lucerne ice cream has gained in sales volume every year, winning new friends each month. The gold medal award confirms the judgment of the public, which has made Lucerne ice cream one of the biggest sellers in the market," Mr. Smith said.

Citrus Reciprocity—

Bruce McDaniel, able leader in the group known as the Mutual Orange Distributors, is advocating an international conference of citrus interests, to discuss markets and world prices for citrus fruits.

For years there have been intelligent students from South Africa, Egypt, Palestine and Italy in this country, studying our cultural and marketing methods. Our growers and shippers have accorded them every courtesy and facility that would lead to the betterment of their citrus growing in their own lands. They have been given opportunity to study in our agricultural colleges. They have taken back to their countries our machinery, our methods of pest control, our formulas of fertilization, our ideas of cooperative marketing.

And, as a result, citrus acreage is increasing in foreign countries; better methods of growing and handling are having an effect on the world markets. They have the advantage of us in that they continue to use very cheap labor, and that they are nearer to the foreign markets.

The citrus grower in these foreign lands should feel grateful to us for the very material assistance we have given. But for the present we will do well to remain pessimistic as to any measurable degree of foreign co-operation. It has never been the history of nations to cooperate when it meant any degree of trade sacrifice. Perhaps McDaniel has a definite program upon which citrus interests throughout the world can unite to the benefit of all. That would be something for which to strive. But if such should come to pass, it would be the first industry, and the first international reciprocity agreement that did not leave the Americans holding the sack.

camping facilities—concrete fire-places, water under pressure, and clean rest rooms and sanitary facilities. Within the camp there is also a general grocery and provision store conducted by the county. Recreational facilities also have been provided, including a concrete stadium with a seating capacity of 800, a reading room and library, tennis courts, and supervised swimming at the lake. In addition there is an electrically-equipped kitchen for the use of picnicers. The electric plates are so metered that the sum of ten cents the electricity will remain on for thirty minutes. All these improvements, stated Mr. Reid, have done at the minimum of expense to the taxpayers of the county, unemployment relief being used almost entirely.

Among those present from Covina were: J. R. Elliott, who retired last January as a director of the Committee of Nine following continuous service on the board since 1929; E. H. Walters, local representative on the committee, and J. L. Matthews. Other guests were: Harold C. Ames, district ranger, U.S.D.A.; B. E. Barnhill, chief engineer West Slope Construction Company; C. S. Baader, inspector, southern division, Division of Fish and Game; Ralph S. Brooks, office engineer, Board of Water Commissioners, Long Beach; D. A. Daly, superintendent, West Slope Construction Company; Harlan O. Gates, Protective association; Walter Grayson, chief district sanitary inspector, county of Los Angeles; C. H. Howell, chief engineer, L. A. flood control district; Morris S. Jones, chief engineer and general manager, City of Pasadena; C. R. Crebbin, U.S.D.A., forest department, deputy Forest Supervisor; F. Peterson, U.S.D.A.; J. A. Blaine, Beardslee Water Ditch Company; Paul S. Rattle, U. S. Forestry officer, U.S.D.A.; J. D. Roberts, health inspector, L. A. county; E. R. Stuver, resident engineer, L. A. County Flood Control; Spence Turner, County Forester; R. P. Grant, Glendale Independent; Walter C. C. W. Sopp, assistant engineer and general manager, City of Pasadena; Bert Warren, superintendent, Glendale Consolidated Water Co.; Miller Newman, U. S. Forestry ranger; Roy Tuttle, superintendent of Crystal Lake Recreation park; J. G. Drexler, president of Calum Owners association; James K. Reid, superintendent, L. A. county parks and playgrounds; Roy Guyman; Lillian Chappell, fish and game conservation; Edwin Thomas, Long Beach; C. A. Griffith, president Committee of Nine; H. A. Desormeaux, vice-president; H. S. Rogers, secretary; W. A. Jones; T. F. Hehl; P. A. Muck; M. S. Voshung; E. H. Walters, director; Morgan J. Pierce, chairman for Committee of Nine; P. J. Tschagerer, attorney for committee; B. P. Barnhill, assistant secretary.

Ethiopians detest being called Abyssinians because Abyssinia means "mixed race," which Ethiopia means "burned by the sun."

Football Phobia—

Dr. Paul E. Hirtz, Covina resident on one of our choice hilltop sites south of the town, contributes an article last week to the Argus which aroused considerable comment.

And, because the subject was somewhat controversial, the comments were not all favorable. Dr. Hirtz is a man internationally known among educators and artists, and his opinions are worthy of more than passing consideration.

The article concerned our national football fetish; our unreasoning and unreasonable intemperance in sports. Football, he said, attracts the greatest audiences of any outdoor spectacle, but actually is one of the dumbest contests staged by the sport world. He cites several other sports that are faster, more adapted to open play, and which can be more greatly shared by the spectators.

Many will agree with him, and many will concur that it is absurd to so greatly commercialize a college sport for the monetary benefit, oftentimes, of the stockholders in a privately-owned college or university, who build new campus buildings with the proceeds, while the players are not allowed to share even a dollar of the profits.

The Argus writer has ventured several times to point out some of these naive phases of American sports phobia. But we have never, as a people, striven for the clear heights of frankness reached by P. T. Barnum, who said that "the American people love to be humbugged."

While some of the phases mentioned concerning sports mechanization and commercialization are important, the real mistake, in our estimation, is in over-exciting the spirit to win. College teams are drilled to win by coaches ambitious for better personal reputations, and this means the exclusion from all teams of everything except the best material. This intercollegiate warfare has crippled intramural sports, the exercising and conditioning of all students instead of just a few. It is creating a sentiment that if one is not over-supplied with brawn there is no real reason for attending college.

The savage, unreasoning will to win every game is at one and the same time the reason why American sports are the best and the poorest in the world. Other nationalities seek to be able to play the game for the game's sake, and to look upon winning as incidental.

When we see women sobbing into their handkerchiefs and men cursing sullenly because the home-town team got licked, we realize how identical in spirit are our sports with war. Under such conditions it is sport in name only.

A little less intensiveness, considerably less commercial greed, and more fun widely distributed, will help a lot to improve our national sports.

Women of the Moose Executives Meet

A meeting of the executive committee of the Women of the Moose was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. P. Shults, Valencia Place, light refreshments being served following the business meeting. Those present were Mrs. Wilson Hall, Mrs. Eugene Chewing, Mrs. Alphonse Bastide, and Mrs. Henry Dykes. Arrangements were made at the meeting for the drill team to go to Whittier Thursday evening to assist in a special initiatory ceremony being put on by the Whittier lodge.

If life were a game in which the rewards were handed out on a silver platter to anyone who happened to ask for them, lots of folks would sleep in rose beds. But, unfortunately, you've got to reckon with the thorns.

Madame Ellen Beach Yaw and Mrs. Phoebe Ara White spent two days in San Diego last week viewing the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. David Unruh of Holt avenue on Monday attended a board meeting of the Federated Women's clubs in Los Angeles. This was an all-day meeting and luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Crawford of Third street entertained W. E. Warr at dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bristow and son of Los Angeles spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. C. E. Bristow, of San Bernardino road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sowle of Grand-fork, North Dakota, arrived last week to spend a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sowle, and with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brunjes. Trips to points of interest throughout the southland have been planned for their pleasure.

RETURN FROM OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Taylor of Orange avenue and the latter's mother, Mrs. Walter Jenks, returned Sunday from a two-weeks' motor trip to Oregon, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jenks in Salem. Before they returned to the south they also visited in Portland.

During a pause in the sermon the deacon leaned over and whispered to the minister, "Remember, you were going to say something about the high cost of living."

"I haven't forgotten it," replied the minister. "I'll speak about it after the collection has been taken."

She—Darling, the diamond in this engagement ring is very small.

He—Yes, I told the jeweler it was for the smallest, nicest hand in the whole country and I wanted a ring to suit such a hand.

She—Oh, that's different.

The trouble with a lot of us is that we want to accomplish many things, but aren't willing to pay the price.

Jack Benny Coming to Fox-Pomona in Lavish Musical Production

Jack Benny, twice winner of the honor of being the most popular radio entertainer, is booked to be at the Fox theater, Pomona, starting Sunday, in "Broadway Melody," the most lavish and best musical comedy brought to the screen to date. Besides the host of featured radio and screen stars in the picture, there is Eleanor Powell, world-famous dancer, and Robert Taylor, a Pomona college boy who is rapidly coming to the top.

To close the current week, "Special Agent," featuring George Brent and Bette Davis, is the Fox attraction for Friday and Saturday, with Saturday night bringing a special midnight "spook show." Di Ghilini, mystic, will appear on the Fox stage and under floodlights will present "Ghosts," an eerie and terrifying act which has puzzled scientists and those familiar with the occult all over the world. Following Dr. Di Ghilini, "Clairvoyant," with Claude Rains and Fay Wray, will be shown on the screen. This feature will be shown once only and will follow the midnight stage performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hines are at present living in the home of Mrs. Hines' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Thorpe, who are spending a vacation at their new cottage on the summit of Palomar mountain in San Diego county. Mr. and Mrs. Hines are building a new home at San Marino on Mirasol avenue, which they expect to be ready for occupancy in about three months.

Mrs. Annette Phillee, who has been confined to the hospital for two weeks with a serious illness, was removed to her home on Monday.

Farm Bureau Man to Talk on Legislation

CHESTER H. GRAY

Chester H. Gray, legislative representative for the American Farm Bureau federation, one of the country's outstanding authorities on national farm legislation, will visit California during the first part of October for the purpose of bringing personally to farmers in this state a closeup, intimate picture of the recent session of congress, particularly as agriculture is affected. His picture will be uncolored by partisan factors or editorial bent. The congress just closed was one of the longest and stormiest sessions in the history of the country.

All Farm Bureau members and others having an interest in farm and general national problems should attend the meeting, arranged for the Pasadena Civic auditorium, 300 East Green street, Pasadena, Tuesday evening, October 1, at 7:30. The public is welcome.

Guests on Thursday evening of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stuckey of Cypress avenue were Gilbert Stuckey, Louie Thomas and Frank Anderson of Los Angeles.

ATTEND CHURCH CONFERENCE

Mrs. Ella Patten of South Azusa avenue and Mrs. Ed Adams of Cameran avenue attended the federation church conference held Thursday evening of last week at the Chapman Park hotel in Los Angeles. Over fifty representatives from all over southern California attended this meeting, and many interesting topics pertaining to the uniting of all protestant churches were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reed of San Bernardino road entertained the members of a bridge club at their home Saturday evening with a dinner party. There were twelve guests present, all of whom were from Pasadena.

Covina Women Carry Off Prizes at Fair at Pomona

Covina women made a very creditable showing in the household section of the Los Angeles county fair, some of them carrying off first and second prizes for their handwork and jams and marmalades.

Mrs. Nadia Simeonoff, who annually is a winner of prizes, won more than it is easy to list. Emma B. Anderson, who lives in the walnut district between Covina and Puenle, was also a winner of half a dozen or more first prizes and several second prizes for her crochet and other handwork. She also won a first prize for her oil painting of a floral setting on a porcelain plaque.

Mrs. Bess Aschenbrenner received a first prize and honorable mention for her hooked rug, and also exhibited hand-painted china. Mrs. A. Lankow won prizes for her artwork and in the cookery department Mrs. Raymond Netzel's mixed pickles was a winner of the second prize.

Mrs. Clara Ayers of Orange avenue carried away the first prize on orange marmalade and honorable mention for a fancy cake. Mrs. David Unruh, who has won many prizes in past years for her zinnias, exhibited only guinea gold marigolds, on which she won first prize.

Navenka Economoff Wins Sweepstakes at State Fair

At the recent state fair in Sacramento, Miss Navenka Economoff of West Badillo street brought statewide recognition to Covina by winning the grand sweepstakes trophy for the women's division. This is the first time in the history of the fair that such a prize has been offered.

Following the engraving of the trophy and its return to the winner, she and her sister, Mrs. George Simeonoff, will exhibit their joint entries for the public, a certain number of which will be placed on sale. Included in this group will be various pieces of foreign embroideries, costumes, cutwork, crochets, weaving, needlepoint, tapestries, and hand decorated boxes.

Of the many entries listed and exhibited which were given awards, the two women won forty-seven first prizes and eight second prizes.

Mrs. Simeonoff and her sister moved north, remaining in Sacramento for the duration of the fair.

They returned last week, the former driving home from the state capital in ten hours.

Although the two women entered comparatively few pieces in the Los Angeles county fair at Pomona, they were awarded more than fifteen first prizes.

Miscellaneous Shower and Party Held for Recent Bride

In honor of Mrs. Gordon Kishbaugh (Thelma Terris) of Azusa, a recent bride, Miss Ruth Goodrich entertained on Wednesday of last week at her home on Orange avenue with a delightful party and miscellaneous shower.

Bowls of Mexican zinnias in fall colors were used as decoration throughout the home, and places for refreshments were set for the honoree, Mrs. Thomas Terris, Miss Lorraine Bashor, Miss Virginia Deeter, Mrs. Edgar Coffman, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Powell and Mrs. Howard Gillenwater of Covina, Mrs. Winsor Seapy and Miss Willis Anderson of Ontario, Miss Lucille Kimball of Pasadena, Miss Frances Whitmore of Baldwin Park, and Mrs. R. G. Kishbaugh, Mrs. Allan White and Mrs. C. Singleton of Azusa.

Following games, for which prizes were won by Mrs. Gordon Kishbaugh and Miss Deeter, the honoree was presented with a nosegay, to which were attached tiny scrolls revealing the hiding place of numerous gifts.

WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Tuesday the annual meeting of the women members of the Mountain Meadows country club was held at the clubhouse and the following officers elected: Mrs. Kenneth Carter of Fontana, captain of the A team; Mrs. Milo Vieley of Ontario, captain of the B team; Mrs. George Brown of Pomona, handicaps chairman; Mrs. R. W. Crook, women's golf and tournament chairman, and Mrs. C. C. Denio of Pomona, house chairman.

During the meeting plans for social and athletic events were discussed and a full year promised to present and prospective members.

Rotarians Stage Semi-Annual Ladies' Night

The semi-annual "ladies' night" of the Covina Rotary club, held on Thursday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Thorpe on East Cameron street, attracted a large gathering of members and their wives, daughters, and sweethearts.

The motif of the evening was Mexican thruout. The tables were spread under blooming hibiscus bushes and graceful plumosis palms in the patio, with the star-lighted canopy of a southern California sky as the roof. Illuminated with candles, the tables were decorated with Mexican fruit, gourds and peppers, with favors of individual potted cacti. During the service of the meal, composed of Spanish dishes, a Mexican orchestra from the Merwin settlement played the tuneful music of their race, and juvenile dancers in their colorful costumes presented a number of creditably-executed Spanish dances.

Following the dinner, Dr. Robert P. Miller, president of the local club, recently home from a four-weeks' tour of Mexico following his attendance at the International Rotary conference held in Mexico City, presented four reels of colored motion pictures, taken by himself, depicting the intimate social life of the citizens of that southern republic, far from the customary walks of the average tourist. During the showing of the reels, in the Spanish livingroom of the Thorpe home, Dr. Miller in a pleasing conversational manner described in detail the customs of the Mexican people and the historic background of the country. The program during the evening was in charge of Rotarian "Bob" Burns, chairman of the club's program committee.

Among those who participated in the affair were: President and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Korckhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Taylor, Miss Edna Hanna, Roy Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Persons, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. L. Boyd King, Col. and Mrs. H. G. Upham, Dr. and Mrs. Elmer King, Mr. and Mrs. Hale Clippinger, Mrs. R. J. Craker of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. William Knotts, Mr. and Mrs. James Sorenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crook, and Mrs. Raymond E. Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herring, Mr. and Mrs. William Viney, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coles, Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Samuels, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stead, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Trueblood, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthews, Dr. and Mrs. P. Magan, Mr. and Mrs. George Simeonoff, Elbert Griffith, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Yeager, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, Clyde Custer, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hepper, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Ross, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tucker, Rev. and Mrs. B. M. Hauke, and Chet White.

Mrs. Iris Burns Weds Movie Actor in Horseback Ceremony

The William Randolph Hearst ranch at Calabasas was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Mrs. Olive Iris Burns, daughter of Mrs. Olive M. Aschenbrenner of Hollenbeck avenue, and Albert A. Boles of Canoga Park, with a number of motion picture friends present.

The ceremony, which was read by Judge Sleeper of Calabasas, took place with all the members of the wedding party on horseback. The bride was attended by Miss Mary McLaren of motion picture fame, while the groom had as his attendant Daniel Poyer, manager of the Hearst estate.

Mr. Boles has gained recognition for his horsemanship and is at present connected with a motion picture studio.

The first meeting of the garden section of the Woman's club will be held Wednesday, October 9, at the home of Mrs. David Unruh on Holl avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Haynes of Pomona were guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Motter for dinner at Wilson's cafe on Foothill boulevard.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

MRS. CLYDE KING HONORED GUEST AT SHOWER—

Mrs. Elban Scofield and Mrs. Harry Farson entertained Monday at the home of the former on Rowland avenue with an attractively-appointed luncheon and shower honoring Mrs. Clyde King of Long Beach. Zinnias in fall shades were used as decorations, and the luncheon table, which was placed in the garden, was centered with a bowl of pink and blue asters. Appropriate placecards marked the covers for the honoree, Mrs. Sam Scofield, Mrs. Claude Searcy, Mrs. Howard Hadley, Mrs. Jack Vaughan, Mrs. Harold Potter, Mrs. George Kerckhoff, Mrs. Vercil Maul, Mrs. James Beardsley, Mrs. Roy Winder, Mrs. Carl Shirley, Mrs. Joe Wilke, Mrs. R. Brunet, and Mrs. Lawrence Lemke of Placentia. Between the luncheon and dessert course Mrs. King was presented with a lovely gift from the guests and hostesses. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, prizes for which were won by Mrs. Sam Scofield and Mrs. Searcy.

HARRINGTONS COMPLIMENT MOTHERS AT DINNER—

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harrington of East Badillo street entertained Friday evening with a dinner party in honor of their mothers, Mrs. H. H. Harrington, Sr., of Long Beach and Mrs. Trudie Moore of Cincinnati, who celebrated their birthdays this month. The tables were centered with bowls of pastel asters and places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harrington, Sr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrington and Mrs. Sadie Donaldson of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McHarg, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Custer, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Colver, Mrs. Moore, and the hosts. Bridge was the diversion of the evening, with prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. Colver.

STEAK BAKE COMPLIMENTS FRESNO VISITORS—

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamish of Fresno, who were guests over the latter part of the week of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Mallory, friends and relatives in Covina, a group of friends gathered at the city park on Saturday evening for a steak bake, following which the party adjourned to the Jay Pitzer home on West Badillo street for bridge. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hamish, Mr. and Mrs. Pitzer and daughter, Betty Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Batchelder and two children, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Beckham, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Colver, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shaver and children, Mrs. Howard Varcoe and two daughters, and Mrs. Doris Shirley. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson assisted Mr. and Mrs. Pitzer as hosts for the evening. Prizes for bridge were won by Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder and Dr. and Mrs. Marr.

GILBERT NIGGS HOSTS AT BRIDGE SUPPER—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Nigg in Adams park was the scene on Saturday evening of a bridge party and buffet supper. The affair was given to introduce Mr. and Mrs. Howard Russell of Alhambra, the former a fraternity brother of Mr. Nigg. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George Berryman of South Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Boyd, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nigg.

MISS CLEGHORN PLEDGED TO CHI OMEGA—

Miss Dorothy Ellen Cleghorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cleghorn of Barranca street, has been pledged to the Chi Omega sorority of the University of California at Los Angeles, and was among the pledges who were introduced on Sunday at the sorority home.

MRS. BEARDSLEYS ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON—

Mrs. J. A. Beardsley of East Badillo street was hostess on Wednesday of last week at luncheon and bridge. Covers were laid for Mrs. William Hitchcock, Mrs. William Myrtle, Mrs. Cleve Martin and Mrs. Brud Shay of San Bernardino, and Mrs. Gilbert Nigg.

Otelo Class Holds Business Meeting

The Otelo class of the Baptist Sunday-school met at the home of Mrs. Lucy M. Hull Tuesday night with the president, Miss Mary Funk, presiding. A short business meeting was held, at which time Mrs. Oscar Miller and Mrs. Hull gave a report from the Baptist women's missionary house party which was recently held at Pacific Palisades. The devotional period was led by Mrs. V. C. Haymond. The balance of the evening was spent in sewing for the philanthropy section under the leadership of Mrs. Martin Holman. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

International Themes to Form Settings for Year's Club Programs

In her search for programs that are entertaining, interesting and unusual for the Covina Woman's club year, Miss Elizabeth Elliott, who is in charge of the programs, has secured a list of artists that will please all members of the club. The season opens Monday, October 14, with a luncheon that will be one of four, all literary in theme. The first one deals with Russia, and "Catherine the Great" has been chosen as a character around which to build the program. There also will be gypsy and semi-classical music by Relesco's Russian Gypsies. This quartet of instrumentalists are gay in their bright silk smocks and their music is appealing and musical.

The Christmas meeting also is planned as a luncheon and will be a Dickens day, featuring an old English festival.

Two evening meetings will be an innovation, at the first of which, in November, Harry Carr will be the speaker following a dinner at which the husbands and gentlemen friends are to be guests. The second evening meeting will be in the spring, when a Sunday evening candle-lighting supper and musical is to be the program.

At the second meeting, Kathleen Byam, who calls herself a monodramatic artist, will give a program of interpretations and skits entitled, "Feminine Phases From Greece, B. C., to American N. R. A." Miss Byam is known from coast to coast for her clever programs. She has entertained for Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and other famous people. Lyman Beecher Stowe, grandson of Harriet Beecher Stowe, and an intimate friend of Mark Twain when they were boys, will be the speaker on Mark Twain day in March. He is a fascinating speaker and tells many of the intimate stories of the loved author. Kismet Sirri, a young Turkish woman journalist and student, is another of the artists that has been secured for the club, and the reciprocity day in April will be made a tea to accommodate, not only out-of-town guests, but the large local membership. The section day has been made an annual event, when one meeting will be given over to the various sections and their talent to provide the program.

Miss Elliott has secured a large part of her summer in attending auditions and interviewing artists and their agents in her effort to select the finest for the coming programs. She, with the president, Mrs. Robert Miller, and Mrs. E. A. Weggar, who is in charge of the four luncheons which will occur throughout the year, are making elaborate plans for these events, which are annually growing in popularity.

P-T-A MEETING

Lark Ellen Parent-Teacher association met Wednesday afternoon in the clubhouse to spend an afternoon socially and to await appointment of committees by the president, Mrs. Willard Runyan, which will act for the coming year. The president was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Loren Morrow and Mrs. John Coffeen.

FASHION TIPS

by HELEN

What is a new frock without the proper accessories? That's the cry of the well-dressed woman, and to answer it we have stocked a grand line of every possible type of enhancement for midday's fall costume.

Hose in the many smart shades for black and brown are really just hose, but these new shades of forest green, burgundy and dark blue are the last word. These come in the ever-popular $1.00 price range and we carry all sizes.

Suede and leather bags of soft, pliable skins are made up in unusual styles and trimmed with antique gold or silver clasps. Unusually-shaped bags are all the rage, especially in the evening type. These dainty yet striking bags are accented with rhinestone and crystal trims.

For the sports frock, a slender or triangle type scarf in plain or plaid materials furnishes just the finishing touch. Hankies, too, in brilliant shades can lend a jaunty air to the costume.

Our new printed satin nighties are so lovely, and they come in soft blues and teardrop, cleverly trimmed with self material in ruffles or shirred accents. Printed nighties in crepe are popular also and we carry a complete line in flattering shades. Other lingerie in satin, crepe or glove silk, including slips, panties and bras in all popular shades are tucked away awaiting your approval.

Speaking of foundation garments, we are anxious for you to see and try on our new line of girdles and complete foundations in two-way stretch and latex for both the slender and matronly figures. We are prepared to give expert advice and reliable fittings.

Cherry Blossom Girl Reserves Honor Member

The home of Mrs. C. A. Roberts of Orange avenue was the setting on Thursday of last week for a cleverly arranged party and shower given by the Cherry Blossom Girl Reserves in honor of Miss Miss Emiko Suzuki of Baldwin Park, who was married Tuesday evening to Mitsugi Ouchi of Los Angeles at the Japanese Holy-ness church in Los Angeles.

Those present were Miss Ellen Kunisaki, Miss Chii Hashimoto, Miss Toshi Hashimoto, Miss Yoshi Hashimoto, Miss Miyoko Suzuki, Miss Toyoko Nagasawa, Miss Hira Hiraishi, Miss Masako Yamamoto, Miss Violet Sasaki, Miss Anna Ito, Miss Wasano Kinoshita, Miss Akiko Yokoe, Miss Kazuo Yamashita, Miss Sachi Tamaki, Miss Kapsuko Kiyani, Miss Hisako Oshiro, and Mrs. Luther Rice, Mrs. Richard Webb, Mrs. Will Husey, Miss Dena Hayenga and Mrs. Kate Doyen of Baldwin Park, Miss Lucille Capelle, Mrs. Clara Ayers, and the hostess.

Following an evening of hearts the honoree was taken to the garden, where she found numerous lovely gifts from the guests. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening at a table decorated in the pink and white motif.

Miss Suzuki is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Suzuki of Baldwin Park and is an alumna of Covina high school, having graduated with honors. Mr. Ouchi is in business in Los Angeles and the young couple will make their home there after a short wedding trip.

Mary Lou Cook to Act as Soloist for Gus Arnheim Band

To the ever-increasing list of Covina's young people who are gaining a place for themselves in the musical and artistic world should be added the name of Mary Lou Cook, who recently has been added as soloist to the entourage of Gus Arnheim. Mary Lou joined Arnheim's band, leaving this week on a tour of northern California cities, where they will be heard in night clubs and well-known cafes up and down the coast.

Mary Lou is well known in Covina's younger circles, where she was a popular student in the high school. She is at present making her home in Los Angeles with her mother, Mrs. George W. Cook.

Those present were the curators and their assistants, including Mrs. S. M. Fisher and Mrs. Ardin Hotchkiss, bridge; Mrs. George Wheat and Mrs. C. R. McCall, drama; Mrs. Thomas Mallard and Mrs. E. A. Weggar, household arts; Mrs. David Unruh and Mrs. A. L. Winsor, garden; Mrs. L. C. Swearingen and Mrs. George Leonard, social; Mrs. Myra Nye and Mrs. E. H. Walters, better English and literature; Mrs. Ella Patten and Mrs. R. B. Burns, Bible; Mrs. Robert Miller, club president, and Mrs. W. P. Magan, vice-president.

The better English and literature is a newly-formed section, the members of which, for a very nominal sum, will be coached in the correct usage of English, while the review of better literature will be under the supervision of Myra Nye, who is a personality in the literary world.

During the afternoon plans were formulated for a monthly section day to be held the third Monday of every month, and on which drama and better English and literature will occupy the morning, followed by a community luncheon, and the household arts and Bible sections in the afternoon.

The bridge section will meet every first Monday of the month at the clubhouse, the garden and the social section every fourth Monday, also in private homes.

Valley Y.W.C.A. to Hold Membership Tea and Rally

The San Gabriel valley branch of the Young Woman's Christian association is this week sending out announcements for a general "membership tea and rally" next Monday, from three to five, at the home of Mrs. H. H. Beckwith, corner of Palm Drive and Lorraine avenue, Glendora. Preceding the tea the district board will meet at two for the regular last-of-the-month meeting, plans for the year's work to be considered.

Since several of the leaders in the valley Y. W. have been abroad this summer, the informal program will consist of the stories of their adventures. Mrs. W. H. Wiley toured in England, while Miss Lucille Capelle, the Y. W. general secretary, and Miss Alida Parker not only visited England and Scotland, but Belgium, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Italy, Switzerland and France as well, and will give word-pictures of the places toured through.

The only business of the program will be the acceptance of the new district constitution and by-laws, which will then be sent for approval to national headquarters in New York.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS TO MEET

The regular meeting of San Gabriel valley order of Job's Daughters will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Covina Masonic temple. The meeting will start at 1:30 and will be followed by refreshments.

TOWN CHATTER

We'll bet that the next time Art Milliken lends his beach slacks to a maiden who has emerged from a dip in the ocean with all her clothes on, he'll remember to take the car keys out of the pockets. Seems as tho' he discovered this too late and had to take the ferry back to his beach home, get another car, drive all the way back to Covina to get the keys from the young lady, drive back to the beach, unlock and drive his car back home and relax with many a groan. We're told that Art took no small amount of booping from the elder members of the assembled beach party.

We're wondering what Emma Lou is going to do with all those grand new formal with Bobby yawning on the California campus.

HAVE YOU SEEN: Esther and Ginnie riding down the main drag in the rumble seat of a car with an umbrella over their heads... Louis's panama after he used it to fill his jalopie's radiator on a recent mountain trip... Barkley's face after losing twenty smackers at the races 't'other day?

We see by the papers that our favorite wrens, Dor Cleghorn and Janet Knotts, are pledged to two of U.C.L.A.'s most popular sororities, and now Dor is wearing the Chi O pin and Janet the Tri Delta.

DID YOU KNOW: that torn ligaments in his shoulder cost Max Glasco a place on Howard Jones's varsity... that Lucille is being called the "Drugstore Philousifor"... and that there are plenty of fellas that wish they had bet on a cream-puff instead of Baer to K.O. Louis.

What young man is basking in the limelight of heroism since rescuing a mouse from a wash tub while calling on a certain deb?

A well-known movie actress advises any of us womenfolks who are considering the new short skirts that we would only need to hunt up some of the pictures of 1911 or 1912 and the length of the skirts would remain DOWN.

If a certain coed tells a friend she's married and then invites him to "come up and see her sometime," what do you think?

If you should see a twosome or threesome of smartly dressed women calling on your next-door neighbor, know that it's probably some of the membership committee of the Woman's club out to increase the club's membership list.

HEADLINERS... Dittberner playing tackle on the varsity at U. S. C... Jack Howard, first-string fullback at Cal... Walt Hege, end on Stanford's freshe team... and "Cow" Henderson, first-string tackle at U. S. C.

It's rumored that one of our most comely widows is seriously considering another matrimonial step... and it's rumored one of our most recent brides and grooms will soon be telling it to the judge... and it's also rumored that a recently divorced couple are looking again toward the altar... and... well, let's wait and see if the rumor persists!

COVINA FOOTBALL TEAM WINS 13 TO 12 BATTLE WITH SHERMAN INDIANS

Succession of Passes in Last Few Minutes of Play Kept Colts From Being Scalped

By DWIGHT HUTCHINSON

King football was formally crowned for Covina sport fans last Saturday, September 21, when Coach Ted Gorrell led forth his 1935 Colt team to a 13-12 victory over the Sherman Indians in the annual grid battle between these traditional rivals. Both teams scored in the first and again in the fourth quarter, Covina converting its first touchdown for the vital point. As the Colts and the Indians were both light and fast, the contest was a highly entertaining one to watch.

Because this was the Colts' first 1935 appearance, the team suffered from a lack of unity. Covina's line seemed weak on defense. But no doubt these two points will be cleared up as the team gains more confidence and experience.

Eddie Nichols played an outstanding game for Covina at quarterback. His kicking and ball-carrying were features which contributed largely to the Colts' success in their initial game. Captain Bob Conlon at left halfback played the entire game and wherever the thickest of the struggle was, there was Bob. William Grisaffi at right end for the Colts played a hard, steady game at this important post.

Coach Egbert of the Indians has a variety team composed largely of sophomores. Brown at fullback was exceptional in his ball-carrying ability. The two Chavez brothers, both in halfback positions, did a good all-around job at kicking and defense work.

The opening lineup was as follows:

COVINA	LER	SHERMAN
Smith	LER	Antone
Booth	LTR	Miller
Polhemus	LGR	Washington
Cleghorn	C	O'Neil
Mann	RGL	Leeds
Wilson	RTL	Ferris
Grisaffi	REL	Eaner
Nichols	Q	Keller
Conlon (C)	LHR	D. Chavez
Nigg	RHL	M. Chavez
Neely	R	Brown

Substitutions for Covina made through the game included: Peters, le; Athan, lg; Pavelko, c; Miller, rg; Pedersen, rt; Becker, re; Daugherty, Brown and Qualls, q; Hutchinson and Dancer, rh; and Young, f.

FIRST QUARTER
Chavez of Sherman kicked down to Covina's 32-yard line, where Conlon fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Sherman. Brown, the Indian fullback, threw a forward pass down to Covina's 19-yard stripe, where it fell incomplete, but remained there inasmuch as a Covina man interfered with the receiver. M. Chavez, left half, tried a reverse around end and carried the ball down to the Colts' 2-yard mark. Brown, first trying a fake reverse, was stopped at the line of scrimmage, but in the next play drove right over center for a touchdown in less than two minutes after the kickoff. Sherman was unable to convert for the extra point.

M. Chavez kicked for Sherman down to Covina's 15-yard line, where Nichols grabbed the ball and ran it back to his own 24. The next fifteen plays were merely a succession of punts, with Covina keeping the ball well out of its own territory. With the ball on their own

Johnny Whitehead Writes About Covina People in and Around San Francisco Met on Publicity Trip for Poets

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Don't let anyone ever try to tell you this business of touring with a typewriter isn't a lot of fun. Why, it's top! Here I am 'way up in the city of the Golden Gate acting as the advance guard for "Chief" Newman's Whittier college football club which battles the California Bears Saturday across the bay in Berkeley. . . and having the time of my young life. I'm not even lonesome. How could I be when I find myself bumping in to old friends every day? Half-way across a Berkeley intersection Monday afternoon I met Bob Clark, the old-Galloping Colt who is embarking on his final year of study at University of California. Bob had just finished working out on the track field. The national decathlon champion is

Trojan Squad to Play University of Montana

With only one regular from last year's starting lineup, Coach Howard Jones has finished the preliminary rebuilding of his University of Southern California football team and is ready to see how his revised edition of the Trojan Thundering Herd would thunder in the season's opener at the Coliseum tomorrow against the University of Montana. When S. C. fans visit the Coliseum to see the Trojans and the Grizzlies in the year's first Pacific coast conference game, they will find Gil Kuhn, smiling, dark-skinned Spanish-German center, the only man on the opening lineup whom they will recognize as a starting varsity player of 1934. Sophomores will have five of the first-string positions and reserves from last year's squad will fill the other five places.

Not only will fans find the Trojan personnel radically changed, but they will also note variations in the Jones system of offensive football.

Colt Gridmen to Meet Burbank on Local Field Today

The Foothill League ruling holds that the general admission price for tickets purchased at the gate in all scheduled league football contests will be 35 cents. Covina, again being a member of the C.I.F., must uphold this ruling. However, pre-game tickets for high school students, grammar school students and alumni of Covina high under 21 years of age may be obtained on the day of the game for 15 cents.

High school students and alumni should apply to the high school office and grammar school students to the grammar school office. All tickets to league games, the first of which will be with South Pasadena on October 4, will be 35 cents at the gate.

The Colts' contest today (Friday) will not be included in the above ruling, as it is a practice game. Burbank comes to Covina this afternoon with one of the largest and heaviest teams in southern California. However, the Burbank eleven went down to a 42-0 defeat last Friday before the terrific onslaught of Coach Newt Stark's Muir Tech Tigers. The chances are good for another Colt victory this weekend.

Lightweight, B and C Football Squads in Practice Tilts

Coach Lewis E. ("Oak") Pendleton's lightweight Colts opened the 1935 season with a practice tilt against the Monrovia B's on the latter's field on Thursday, the 19th. After a week's practice the Colts met Montebello in another practice round on the local field. Coach Pendleton has only one B letterman back this year, Jimmie Howard. Other players have been elevated from the ranks of the C's.

The Colts' lineup in the first two games has been: Howard, 127, fullback; Vincent, 123, fullback; M. McBride, 125, in center; R. H. Riddell, 127, outside half; Hatakeyama, 131, and O'Connell, 123, at the end positions; Shaw, 157, and Pollard, 123, at tackle; Plaster, 123, and Oxenham, 124, at guards; and R. McBride, 125, center. Coach Bill Dresia's C team has been training diligently during the past few weeks. On Thursday, the 19th, the sub-lightweights ran thru scrimmages with Montebello. Several other practice games have been scheduled for the near future.

DIES AT HOSPITAL

Funeral services for Forrest Fleet Booker of Arcadia, owner of the F. Booker Grain & Milling company of El Monte, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident Saturday, were held Wednesday at Glendale. Mr. Booker was found beneath his overturned car on the highway and died later at the Covina hospital.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE No. 1819

WHEREAS, by Deed of Trust dated December 27, 1929, recorded in Book 9691, Page 151 of Official Records, Los Angeles County, and entered on Certificate No. GF59754, Volume G. F., Page 59754, Register of Titles, Los Angeles County, State of California, to which reference is hereby made, Elbert B. Johnson, as Trustee, did grant and convey the property hereinafter described to E. E. GARD and R. HOLTEY MYERS, as joint tenants, as Trustees to secure among other things the payment of a certain promissory note dated December 27, 1929, for the sum of $2600.00 in favor of LOS ANGELES MUTUAL BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, and other sums of money advanced or expended and interest;

WHEREAS, said Deed of Trust provided that should default be made in the payment of any sum secured thereby or in the performance of any obligation therein mentioned, the owner and holder of said note may declare all sums secured by said Deed of Trust immediately due and payable and may require and enforce the sale of the property subject thereto; and

WHEREAS, default in the obligation secured by said Deed of Trust has occurred in that the installments of principal for balance of July, 1934, amount $19.97, and subsequent installments due, and installments of interest due on and subsequent to November 1, 1934, have not been paid, and it has been necessary to advance the sum of $41.17 for delinquent taxes and subsequent installments due, were not paid when due, nor has any part thereof since been paid and there is now due, owing and unpaid upon said note the principal sum of $1771.31, with interest thereon at the rate of 7 1/2 per cent from November 1, 1934, computed monthly, and all sums advanced or expended under the terms of said Deed of Trust, with interest as therein provided; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the default aforesaid, the owner and holder of said note and deed of trust declared on May 21, 1935, all sums secured by said Deed of Trust immediately due and payable, and requested said Trustee to sell the property covered by said Deed of Trust, and on the 28th day of May, 1935, caused notice of said default and of election to cause said Trustee to sell said property in accordance with the provisions of said Deed of Trust to be recorded in Book 13439, page 195, of Los Angeles Records, and entered on Certificate No. 1172355, Volume H. V., Page 2355 of Register of Titles.

Government Securing Rights of Way

Approximately 26 per cent of the right of way needed for the construction of Little Dalton wash flood control project by the United States army engineers has been obtained, the flood control district reported this week to the board of supervisors.

Efforts were being redoubled this week to obtain the remainder of the needed right of way on as many projects as possible, before orders are given to prepare and file condemnation suits. Assignment of a special contact man was approved several days ago.

Trustee, was recorded May 28, 1935, in Book 13423, Page 253, of Official Records, and entered on Certificate No. 1172355, Volume H. V., Page 2355, of Register of Titles, Los Angeles County.

NOW THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that FRED C. CROMER and R. HOLTEY MYERS, as joint tenants, by virtue of the authority vested in them as Trustees, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, on the 14th day of October, 1935, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Western front entrance of the City Hall, in the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California, all the interest conveyed to them by said Deed of Trust, in and to the property situated in Los Angeles County and State of California, described as follows: That portion of Lot 105, Tract 962, City of Baldwin Park, as shown on map recorded in Book 21, Pages 74 and 75 of Maps, in the office of the County Recorder of said County, described as follows: Beginning at a point on the Westerly line of said Lot distant South 4°50' West 275.05 feet from the Northwesterly corner of said Lot; thence along said Westerly line South 4°50' West 105 feet; thence South 85°04' East 307.42 feet to a point in the Easterly line of said Lot distant South 4°50' West 388.05 feet from the Northeast corner of said Lot; thence along said Easterly line, North 4°50' East 105 feet to the point of beginning. Dated September 10, 1935.

(Signed) FRED C. CROMER, Trustee.
(Signed) R. HOLTEY MYERS, Trustee.
Date of first publication, September 13, 1935.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE Trust No. F-161-50D

WHEREAS, RUSSELL FORD, a single man, by Deed of Trust, dated January 19, 1934, and recorded March 1, 1934, in Book 12677, Page 65, of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of Los Angeles County, California, did grant and convey the property therein and hereinafter described to BANK OF AMERICA NATIONAL TRUST and SAVINGS ASSOCIATION, a national banking association, as Trustee with power of sale, to secure, among other things, the payment of that certain promissory note dated January 19, 1934, in the principal amount of Eight Hundred Fifty and no/100ths ($850.00) Dollars in favor of George S. Barnes; and

WHEREAS, said GEORGE S. BARNES, being then the owner and holder of said note and Deed of Trust, did, in conformity with the terms and provisions thereof, elect to and did declare all sums secured by said Deed of Trust immediately due and payable and did demand that said Trustee sell the property granted and conveyed thereby to accomplish the objects of the trust therein expressed in accordance with the provisions therein set forth, and in conformity with the law in such cases made and provided, and did thereafter cause to be recorded on October 12, 1934, in Book 13065, Page 35, of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of the above mentioned County, being the county in which said property is located, a notice of breach and default and of election to cause said Trustee to sell said property to satisfy said obligations;

NOW, THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that to satisfy the obligations so secured, and by virtue of the authority in it vested, the undersigned, as Trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash (PAYABLE AT TIME OF SALE IN LAWFUL MONEY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA) on the 15th day of October, 1935, at 11 o'clock A. M., at front East College street, in the City of Los Angeles, California, all of the interest conveyed to it by and row held under said Deed of Trust, in and to all the following described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, situate and being in the City of Covina, County of Los Angeles, State of California, to-wit: Lot 18, Block 7, Covina Townsite, as per map recorded in Book 9, Pages 3 and 4 of Miscellaneous Records of said County.

To pay the amount due and unpaid upon said note, to-wit: The sum of Seven Hundred Seventy-five and 76/100ths ($775.76) Dollars and interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum from July 1, 1934, to the date of sale, together with advances and interest on advances, if any, under the terms of said Deed of Trust, together with advances and interest on expenses of said sale; and the costs, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession or encumbrances.

Dated September 20, 1935.

Resume of Market Given by Manager

week or ten days should be very light. It is quite likely that Florida oranges will be a large factor in our eastern markets until after Thanksgiving, which means that to a large extent the balance of our Valencia market will be exactly as California Valencia shippers make it.

The Florida resident representative of the United States department of agriculture states that the estimate of the Florida citrus crop for this coming season is placed around 25 million boxes, of which about 60 per cent will be oranges. The actual commercial cropings last year were about 22 million boxes, of which about 36 per cent were grapefruit. The total production in Florida last year, exclusive of the freeze, was estimated by the department of agriculture as 17,200,000 boxes of oranges and 14,800,000 boxes of grapefruit.

Early varieties of oranges, as well as midseason varieties in Florida, will undoubtedly be much shorter than usual, and owing to good growing conditions prior to the hurricane, they will run to large sizes. The maturing of all varieties seems to be earlier than usual. There apparently is a substantial crop of Valencia, of fairly good quality, in Florida, but according to the best reports available, they too are taking on size too fast, and therefore, it is logical to assume that there will be an excess of large sizes by spring. The crop, as a whole, will be inferior, and a large percentage of all varieties will run heavy to second and third grade.

The damage reported in Florida to the citrus crop, due to the recent hurricane, is around 7 per cent on grapefruit and 3 per cent on oranges, when the damage reported is applied to the total Florida crop.

The following are excerpts of a letter received by Mr. Truett from a friend who was in Florida at the time of the recent hurricane: "The hurricane, which hit the keys south of Miami the evening of September 2, has again caused Florida a lot of damage, and from information from the Miami district, the loss of life on the keys was nearer one thousand than the estimate given out by the papers.

"The lime groves on the keys are practically out of business for three years. The citrus section around Homestead, south of Miami, has been practically cleaned out of citrus fruit, lemons and mangoes. Damage in Miami proper was slight. The hurricane veered across south of Lake Okechobee, thru the vegetable section, and the damage of the citrus fruit began in the Port Myers section, where the estimate was but a third of a crop at best, and about half of that was blown off or damaged. The hurricane followed the coast thru Sarasota, Manatee, Hillsborough, and Pasco counties, where it did considerable damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Mallard, 266 College St., Covina, will be in charge of the fair, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Allen, 266 College St., Covina, will be in charge of the fair.

which was almost ready to ship, as both oranges and grapefruit are unusually early this season and are meeting the state requirements for shipping at this time, more especially in the storm area.

"The governor has not yet been able to find eleven men to compose the control committee, and he has recently notified railroads to not accept shipments from those who are trying to pick at this time. He also threatens to call out the militia this week to prevent shipments of dropped fruit, if necessary."
